

Crawley A PLACE TO INSPIRE

What is Employ Crawley?

Employ Crawley is a collaboration between Crawley Borough Council, West Sussex County Council and Jobcentre Plus. Working in partnership with public, private and voluntary sectors offering free information, advice and guidance on a range of local employability and training services, to help Crawley residents access local jobs and assist employers to gain better access to the workforce.

What does Employ Crawley have to offer?

- Clients can access free one-to-one support from a dedicated member of staff to assist them on their personal work journey
- Access to unique workshops, courses and employment and skills events
- Continuous support and advice on how to develop your career
- Access to a regular work information support hub.

Services are based at Crawley Library, Broadfield Library and Crawley Jobcentre and we are delivering our service remotely whilst adhering to Covid 19 guidelines.
