Hi Manor Royal

We are an event catering company based in Rutherford Way, Manor Royal. All of a sudden as you may imagine we have found ourselves with a large amount of empty capacity on our hands due to the current Coronavirus outbreak.

We are reaching out to all businesses within Manor Royal to offer our support. If you do have any catering needs that cannot be met by your existing supplier due to the current situation, we would be very happy to step in and offer our services.

We can offer a personal service to suit the needs of your company, so if you do have a bit of a problem with catering for your work force or other events right now please think of us at Anise Catering.
